

New Lehrhaus 1st Year Report: September 2022

We resurrected Lehrhaus Judaica as NEW LEHRHAUS just about a year ago and it has been a stunning success. We opened with Fred Rosenbaum's lecture: Lehrhaus – Then and Now.

We created a board of directors, a website and committees to address program planning, long-term sustainability, finances, and outreach. Our 501(c)3 status was approved by the IRS in April.

The screenshot shows the New Lehrhaus website homepage. At the top, there are links for SUBSCRIBE, DONATE, CONTACT US, and LOG IN. The main title is "NEW LEHRHAUS". Below it, a sub-section title is "NEW LEHRHAUS, NEW PROGRAMS!". A subtitle reads "The Bay Area Hub for Adult Jewish Learning". There are several small images showing people in various learning and study environments. To the right, under the heading "What Participants Are Saying:", there are two testimonial snippets. Below these, there are two more snippets in a separate box. At the bottom of the page, there is a call to action: "See more on our website home page."

What Participants Are Saying:

Robert Alter's love of Biblical Literature is infectious. His understanding of the literary nuances makes the vitality and wisdom of the literature come alive. He does not seek to declare simple moral lessons, but rather he reveals for us the contradictions and complexities of the human conditions as understood by the ancients.

I LOVE the [Cultural Memory: Ladino Music and Poetry] class. Wow! What a fabulous and interesting presentation! Plus I love hearing the songs. So beautiful.

I love the texts you have chosen and the spectrum of viewpoints on this subject [Torah from the Bedroom]. I especially appreciated BOTH your male/female perspectives on these texts.

Thank you for what you've done for New Lehrhaus. I'm very grateful. Having this community resource is very meaningful (for me personally and, I know, for the whole community).

The response from the community: about 2/3 veteran Lehrhaus Judaica/HaMaqom students and 1/3 newcomers - has been very enthusiastic, far exceeding our expectations. We're now partnering with numerous organizations in the Bay Area Jewish community, from a number of synagogues and JCCs to Urban Adamah, KlezCalifornia, and numerous other organizations, in order to expand our reach and enrich their program offerings.

By the numbers: What we've accomplished in our first year:

- 64 programs offered, including one-time presentations, 3 or 4 session courses, and year-round language classes and Talmud Circles
- 4,500 program registrations by approximately 1,600 individuals
- 5,000 + views of videos of our programs
- 1,420 subscribers to our e-newsletters

We've offered a rich array of programs of outstanding quality with stellar faculty, including: Profs. Robert Alter, Michael Krasny, Rachel Gross, Steve Zipperstein, Daniel Matt, Susan Gilson Miller, David Biale, Deena Aranoff, Ariel Mayse; Rabbis Judy Shanks, Mychal Copeland, Steve Chester, Yoel Kahn, Lavey Derby; Janis Plotkin, Ilan Vitemberg, Ron Reissberg, and many more.

Our participants:

- 88% have rated the programs as “very good,” or “excellent” and responded that “As a result of this program I am “very likely” or “likely” to participate in another New Lehrhaus program.”
- 69% said “As a result of this program I am “very likely” or “likely” to participate in another Jewish learning opportunity outside New Lehrhaus.”
- 88% are over 60
 - 17% self-identified as “unaffiliated”
 - 10% live in multi-faith/multi-tradition households
 - 7% as LGBTQ,

One of the biggest challenges ahead of us is engaging younger, more diverse audiences. To that end, we have now hired a social media company and will launch the first of our six annual campaigns social media during the High Holidays.

Finances at-a-glance:

Donations:

In FY 21-22 (ending 6.30.22) we raised nearly $25,000 from small – medium individual donors and $75,000 from two incredibly generous major donors.

In FY 22-23 we've already raised $8,500 from individual donors and are hoping to triple that by year-end.

Grants:

We received $120,000 in foundation grants in FY 21-22 (some straddling two fiscal years) and anticipate approximately $175,000 in FY 22-23, of which a $15,000 grant has been already received.

Income:

- Our programs were free in the first year, but will incur a modest tuition in FY 22-23, with $67,000 anticipated in tuition income (with 20% annual increases thereafter).
- Annual endowment disbursement of $66,500 in FY 22-23 and a 5% annual increase thereafter.
- We will be reaching out to approximately 50 people who made bequests to Lehrhaus Judaica/HaMaqom to invite them to transfer their bequests to a New Lehrhaus fund held by the Jewish Community Endowment.
